December 16-17, 2021

Annual New York GI Fellows Endoscopy Course
December 15, 2021

Join us at the New York Marriott Marquis Hotel • 1535 Broadway New York, NY 10036

This activity is jointly provided by the Albert Einstein College of Medicine-Montefiore Medical Center and the New York Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy. In addition to nursing-specific programming, all of the accredited physician sessions are open to GI nurses and associates and will be submitted for nursing contact hours.
NYSGE is committed to hosting the 45th Annual New York Course in a safe and responsible manner for all participants, exhibitors, and hotel employees.

The New York Marriott Marquis is complying with current guidelines and executive orders of the Mayor of New York requiring vaccination for all customers, employees and vendors for indoor dining at restaurants, bars, catering/event facilities and any other indoor sit-down dining options.

NYSGE is requiring COVID-19 vaccination for attendees and exhibitors. These groups will be asked to attest* to their vaccination status upon registration. Proof of vaccination may be required on site in some cases.

As another precaution, NYSGE is requiring masking for all participants, exhibitors, and hotel employees.

NYSGE will continue to monitor local requirements as details of the executive order are clarified or updated. Our decisions will be informed and guided by evolving health policy as it relates to the pandemic and Delta variant.

While we happily anticipate bringing the New York GI community together again for the 45th Annual New York Course, your health and safety will always remain our primary concern.

*Attestation of Vaccination Status
Vaccination is defined as receipt of at least one dose of a COVID-19 vaccine authorized for emergency use or licensed for use by the US Food and Drug Administration or authorized for emergency use by the World Health Organization.

Valid forms of proof of vaccination include:

- CDC COVID-19 Vaccination Record Card or an official immunization record from the jurisdiction, state, or country where the vaccine was administered, or a digital or physical photo of such a card or record, reflecting the person’s name, vaccine brand, and date administered
- New York City COVID Safe Pass (available to download on Apple and Android smartphone devices)
- New York State Excelsior Pass
- Official Vaccine Record
Welcome!

NYSGE is excited to be returning to the New York Marriott Marquis for the 45th Annual New York Course! An outstanding selection of educational sessions and keynote lectures will be presented live by our distinguished faculty. Additionally, five sessions of live endoscopy cases will be transmitted from NYU Langone Health. We’ve also added GI Prime Time, a new series of early evening bonus programs.

For those who cannot join us in person, a live streaming option will be available for much of the Annual Course content.

We look forward to seeing you at the 45th Annual New York Course this year!

Annual New York GI Fellows Endoscopy Course Directors

Intended Audience
Practicing Gastroenterologists, Gastrointestinal Endoscopists, Surgeons, GI Fellows, Physician Assistants, Nurse Practitioners and GI Nurses and Associates

Course Description
Under the direction of expert faculty, this course is designed to improve endoscopic practice and change the learner’s approach to a wide range of disorders of the GI tract. The course content will provide current evidence and algorithms to support an efficient but effective evaluation of GI disorders, followed by prompt initiation of appropriate therapy that is directed toward improving patient care and outcomes.

The knowledge base for gastrointestinal endoscopy continues to expand, accompanied and fueled by rapid growth in technological innovations. Advances in therapeutic endoscopy are challenging or replacing techniques that before were purely diagnostic. While maintaining standards of quality and safety, gastroenterologists must understand and effectively apply current and emerging diagnostic and treatment options in order to elevate practice levels and enhance patient outcomes.

This course will help participants improve their ability to accurately diagnose and effectively treat gastrointestinal diseases and disorders, enhance quality and safety in practice settings, recognize trends and technological advances in interventional endoscopic and surgical procedures, and foster an evidence-based approach to endoscopic decision-making for commonly encountered and controversial problems in gastroenterology.

Learning Objectives
- Identify appropriate methods to detect and treat common disorders of the small bowel, colon and pancreas, as well as endobariatric therapy for obesity, and review the effectiveness of these approaches
- Discuss the spectrum of commonly seen disorders of the esophagus and stomach, such as gastroesophageal reflux disease, Barrett’s esophagus, motility disorders and gastric intestinal metaplasia, and outline related treatment options and their effectiveness
- Discuss the management of nonalcoholic fatty liver disease and evaluate the efficacy and safety of current treatments
- Evaluate advances in the methods of assessing disease status in patients with inflammatory bowel disease and discuss the application of these techniques to patient treatment
- Examine the diagnostic and therapeutic capabilities as well as complications of current and emerging advanced endoscopic techniques to diagnose and treat disorders of the hepatobiliary tract, pancreas, and luminal gastrointestinal tract and to detect and manage obscure upper and lower GI bleeding
- Discuss the gastrointestinal manifestations of the novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) and examine the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on endoscopy practice

Accreditation Statement
In support of improving patient care, Albert Einstein College of Medicine-Montefiore Medical Center is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Credit Designation
Albert Einstein College of Medicine-Montefiore Medical Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 14.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Statement
Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 14.0 Medical Knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine’s (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider’s responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

Learning Outcomes for Nurse Participants
After this program, participants will be able to review the pathophysiology of GI diseases, evaluate current advances in diagnostic and therapeutic endoscopy, and identify evidence-based best practices for novel medical, endoscopic, surgical and nursing approaches to the management of digestive diseases.

Nursing Accreditation Statement
This activity has been submitted to the Montana Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. Montana Nurses Association is accredited with distinction as an approver of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation. 14.0 contact hours have been requested. A certificate of completion will be available after submission of the online evaluation form. For more information, please email NYSGE at info@nysge.org.

Certification Board for Sterile Processing and Distribution
This educational activity has been submitted to the Certification Board for Sterile Processing and Distribution, Inc. (GBSPD) for continuing education credit toward maintenance of certification.

Photography and Recording Waiver
NYSGE may take photographs and audio record or video record all or part of this program to use in educational, informational or promotional materials including print, electronic or other media such as the NYSGE website. By participating in this program, you grant NYSGE the right to use your name and photograph for such purposes and to use your remarks should this program offer live or online submission of questions. All such recorded live or online submissions become the property of NYSGE.

Program 1
Advances in Esophageal Motility
Thursday, December 16, 2021 • 5:30 pm – 6:45 pm

Course Description
This course will review recent advances in the diagnosis of esophageal motility disorders including utilization of esophageal high-resolution manometry, and the functional lumen imaging probe (FLIP) for upper endoscopy. Both diagnostic options can be important in the evaluation of patients with dysphagia and other symptoms suggestive of an esophageal motility disorder. This program will discuss how to apply these technologies to patient care.

Learning Objectives
• Using the recently updated Chicago Classification version 4.0 and clinical case applications, review interpretation of esophageal high-resolution manometry tests for esophageal motility disorders
• Describe and demonstrate functional lumen imaging probe (FLIP) planimetry interpretation of esophageal motility disorders

Agenda
5:30 pm Welcome and Introductions Abraham Khan, MD
5:30 – 5:50 pm Chicago Classification Version 4.0: Advances in Esophageal High-Resolution Manometry Daniela Jodorkovsky, MD
5:50 – 6:10 pm FLIP Planimetry on Upper Endoscopy: Updates and Applications Abraham Khan, MD
6:10 – 6:25 pm Case Presentations and Panel Discussion Matthew Whitson, MD, MSEd
6:25 – 6:45 pm Audience Q & A Engage with Sponsors

Non-Accredited Program
This program is not accredited for Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit.

Program 2
Managing the Difficult Polyp
Thursday, December 16, 2021 • 5:30 pm – 6:45 pm

Course Description
This course will help participants improve their ability to effectively treat difficult colon polyps, and to recognize trends and advances in devices and techniques for managing them.

Learning Objectives
• Discuss the management of difficult colon polyps
• Describe the use of new devices and techniques for managing difficult polyps

Agenda
5:30 pm Welcome and Introductions Nikhil A. Kumta, MD, MS
5:30 – 5:50 pm How I Approach Difficult Colon Polyps: Tips, Tricks, and Lessons from 50 Years of Experience Jerome D. Waye, MD
5:50 – 6:10 pm Novel Devices and Techniques for Difficult Polyps Amrita Sethi, MD, MSc
6:10 – 6:25 pm Case Presentation and Panel Discussion Sherif Andrawes, MD
6:25 – 6:45 pm Audience Q & A Engage with Sponsors

Non-Accredited Program
This program is not accredited for Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit.
Program 3

Improving Adenoma Detection Rates
Thursday, December 16, 2021 • 5:30 pm – 6:45 pm

Course Description
Adenoma detection rate (ADR) is a key quality measure for colonoscopy. This program will discuss key colonoscopy quality metrics that are linked to ADR. It will also present new technologies for improving adenoma detection rates such as optical, mechanical, and artificial intelligence enhancements.

Learning Objectives
• Review colonoscopy quality measures related to adenoma detection rate
• Discuss the use and impact of new technologies on improving adenoma detection rates

Agenda
5:30 pm Welcome and Introductions Seth A. Gross, MD
5:30 – 5:50 pm Achieving Quality Indicators in Colonoscopy and Improving Your Adenoma Detection Rates Aasma Shaukat, MD, MPH
5:50 – 6:10 pm Use of Colonoscopy Enhancements to Improve ADR: Optical, Mechanical, Artificial Intelligence Seth A Gross, MD
6:10 – 6:25 pm Case Presentation and Panel Discussion Douglas K. Rex MD (Invited)
6:25 – 6:45 pm Audience Q & A Engage with Sponsors

Non-Accredited Program
This program is not accredited for Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit.

Program 4

Workup of Refractory GERD
Thursday, December 16, 2021 • 5:30 pm – 6:45 pm

Course Description
Substantial numbers of patients with reflux symptomatology do not achieve satisfactory symptomatic improvement with traditional antisecretory therapy. This course will address a best practice approach to the evaluation and management of this complex and challenging patient population. The most recent evidence-based guidelines and clinical practice updates will be addressed.

Learning Objectives
• Devise a practical approach to the workup of refractory GERD based upon most recently published guidelines
• Evaluate the role of endoscopic and surgical management of refractory GERD

Agenda
5:30 pm Welcome and Introductions Felice Schnoll-Sussman, MD
5:30 – 5:50 pm Optimizing the Use of Diagnostic Tests in the Workup of Patients with Refractory GERD Felice Schnoll-Sussman, MD
5:50 – 6:10 pm Personalizing the Choice of Treatment for Refractory GERD Philip O. Katz, MD
6:10 – 6:25 pm Case Presentation and Panel Discussion Amir Soumekh, MD
6:25 – 6:45 pm Audience Q & A Engage with Sponsors

Non-Accredited Program
This program is not accredited for Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit.

Intended Audience
First, Second, Third and Fourth-Year Fellows in Gastroenterology

Course Description
This course is designed to increase knowledge, competence, and performance of advanced therapeutic endoscopy techniques among gastroenterology trainees. Information will be delivered through lectures, audience question and answers, and video presentation of procedural techniques. Best practices across a broad spectrum of therapeutic endoscopy will be presented by a faculty of experienced interventional endoscopists.

Learning Objectives
- Discuss the indications and techniques for the assessment and management of luminal strictures
- Review the diagnostic techniques, management options, and complications associated with treatment of Barrett’s esophagus
- Review techniques for managing luminal leaks, full-thickness closure after resection, and closure of fistulas and perforations by endoscopic suturing and closure devices
- Review the endoscopic approach to management of GERD
- Review best practices for ERCP
- Discuss the latest approach to endoscopic resection, including EMR, ESD, and FTRD
- Demonstrate various endoscopic treatment options for achalasia and gastroparesis
- Review endoscopic management of obesity
- Review techniques for EUS-guided tissue acquisition
- Review interventional EUS techniques including fluid collection drainage and relief of biliary obstruction

Agenda
12:45 pm
Welcome and Introductions

GI Fellows Poster Session
Thursday, December 16 • 5:30 pm – 6:45 pm

Special Offer
The 45th Annual New York Course registration fee will be waived for fellows with accepted posters (limited to one per poster session abstract).

Submission Instructions

Step 1
- Include your Full Name, Institution, Email Address, and Phone Number at the top of the first page of your abstract. Abstracts without this information will not be reviewed.
- Only MS Word and PDF file formats are acceptable
- Name your file as follows: Your Last Name – Institution – Abbreviated Title of Abstract
- Email your file to both info@nysge.org and m.roth@digestivehealthworks.org
- Be certain your file is named properly and includes identifying Information at the top of the first page

Step 2
- Complete the brief online application on our website at www.nysge.org, Annual Course, Poster Session Submission

To Apply for Trainee Membership:
1. Visit www.nysge.org
2. Click the Join button
3. From the Membership Options dropdown box select Trainee Member
4. Complete the membership application

Guidelines
- Individuals currently enrolled in an accredited medical school, residency, or three-year Gastroenterology fellowship are eligible to submit, as are trainees enrolled in Advanced Endoscopy, Hepatology, IBD or Motility fellowships.
- Applicants are not required to be the lead author, but must have contributed significantly and meaningfully to the research study.
- Any clinical topic within Gastroenterology or Hepatology is suitable for submission, although case reports will not be accepted.
- Abstracts submitted to a national meeting (DDW, ACG, AASLD) in the past year are eligible.
- Acceptance by NYSGE does not preclude future submission to other conferences.
- The body of the abstract is limited to 2,900 characters, including spaces.
- If selected, posters may be no larger than 4’ x 8’.
- Posters must be on display by 7:30 am on Thursday. Judges will review the posters from 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm, during which time all presenters must be in attendance.
- All those who submit must be NYSGE Trainee members. Trainee Membership is complimentary, but a brief application is required. Please contact info@nysge.org for assistance.

Exhibits
Many outstanding companies are participating. Take advantage of this opportunity to learn about the latest products and services of importance to your patients and practice. Breakfasts and breaks will be hosted in the exhibit area.

Exhibit Hours
Thursday, December 16 from 7:30 am to 6:00 pm
Friday, December 17 from 7:30 am to 4:00 pm
Active and Trainee Members
Active and Trainee Members must login with their Username and Password to obtain member rates. GI fellows and residents who are not NYSGE members must apply for Trainee Membership before registering. Trainee Membership is complimentary, but an online application is required.

Non-Member Physicians and GI Nurses and Associates
Non-member physicians and GI nurses and associates must login to their User Account. Those who have never attended an NYSGE program will need to create a User Account before registering. If you do not remember your login information, please email info@nysge.org or call 646-218-0650 before creating a duplicate account.

Payment Methods
Registration and payment by credit card should be made online through NYSGE’s secure website (www.nysge.org). For assistance with login issues, please contact info@nysge.org or call 646-218-0650.

Online registration is the fastest and most secure way to confirm your registration. Those unable to pay by credit card may submit a check. Before doing so, access your Profile at www.nysge.org and print the “My Billing Information” page. Mail this with your check so that we can locate your account.

Payment must be received by the indicated deadlines to qualify for published discounts. Please allow 2 weeks for all mailings to reach us. Registrations received after published deadline dates will not be processed until the correct fee is received. Once your check and My Billing Information page is mailed, please email info@nysge.org to notify us of your intent to register.

Cancellation Policy
Refund less $50 processing fee for the Annual Course will be given when requested in writing and submitted no later than December 10, 2021. No refunds will be made after this date.

Hotel and Parking

Hotel Information
New York Marriott Marquis Hotel
1535 Broadway, New York, NY 10036

For a great experience, we encourage all attendees and exhibitors to stay at the New York Marriott Marquis Hotel during the Annual New York Course. You’ll be at the center of the entire program, bypass travel delays due to weather and traffic congestion, and help NYSGE to meet its obligations to the hotel.

Situated in exciting Times Square, the New York Marriott Marquis Hotel offers easy access to entertainment, cultural venues, numerous restaurants, and world-famous shopping. During the conference, the city will be ablaze with color for the holiday season, offering a wonderful opportunity to combine an outstanding educational experience with the splendor of New York at holiday time.

This year there is an Early Bird rate of $319 per night plus tax (currently 14.75%) plus $3.50 occupancy fee for rooms booked by Friday, October 15, 2021, based on availability. From October 16, 2021 to November 22, 2021 the rate will be $379 per night plus taxes and fees as shown above.

Rooms are limited and the $319 Early Bird rate or the $379 regular rate may sell out before November 22, 2021. Group rates will not be available after this date, but the hotel will do its best to accommodate you at prevailing rates. The group rate is available online or by phone:

- Visit our website www.nysge.org at Annual Course > Hotel Information
- Call 1-877-303-0104 (toll free) or 1-212-398-1900 (local). To receive group rates, be sure to mention our group name: NYSGE Annual Course

Parking Information
Parking is not included in the registration fee. Parking is available at the Marriott and in numerous parking garages in the Times Square area. A list of local garages can be found on our website at Annual Course > Hotel Information.

Special Needs

Dietary
Vegetarian, poultry and meat choices are available at all meals. Kosher, vegan and gluten-free lunches are available only by advance request. Indicate your preference during the registration process. Special meals at lunch will only be distributed to individuals who have pre-registered and requested such meals in advance. As special meals incur a surcharge from the hotel, please be sure to pick up your special meal at the Registration Desk or cancel in advance if not needed.

Accommodations
The 45th Annual New York Course facilities are in full compliance with provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and are accessible for individuals with special needs. If you would like to attend this conference and require any special accommodations, please contact the NYSGE Office by December 1, 2021 at info@nysge.org or call 646-218-0650.
